WELCOME

The annual Agatha Christie Festival on the English Riviera is here once again with another fantastic line up of events. Look out for the celebratory fireworks, take part in competitions and enjoy a host of murder mysteries, lectures, walks and dances – plus much more!

The festival coincides with the national Agatha Christie celebrations – for more information on these events, visit www.agathachristie.com.

Event Information and Ticket Booking

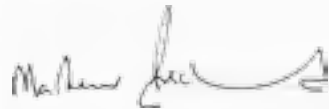

For all your necessary event information and updates, contact the Visitor Information Centres on 0844 474 22 33. Online updates can be found at: www.englishriviera.co.uk/agathachristie/festival.

Event tickets can be purchased by contacting the individual event organisers, with their contact details shown beneath the event details in this programme.

Many tickets can also be purchased through the Visitor Information Centre in Torquay. Accommodation for the festival can be found at www.englishriviera.co.uk. A free accommodation booking service is available through the Visitor Information Centres and by telephoning 0844 474 22 33.

A word from Mathew Prichard

The English Riviera was dear to my grandmother's heart and where better to celebrate her life and works than here on the glorious South Devon coast? I look forward to meeting some of you during the week and to enjoying the, as ever, packed programme of events.

While you're here, explore the Agatha Christie Literary Trail through the English Riviera and South Devon. Pick up your guide in the Visitor Information Centres and participating venues.

THE ABC MURDERS TRAIL COMPETITION

WIN!

To mark the 75th anniversary of the publication of Agatha Christie's The ABC Murders, a special treasure hunt has been created which will run throughout the festival. 26 letters (A – Z) will be hidden across the three towns of Torquay, Paignton and Brixham, with a series of clues leading amateur sleuths to discover their whereabouts.

A prize trip on either of the Orient-Express UK day trains, The British Pullman or Northern Belle*, is up for grabs for the top sleuths who find the most letters. A clue sheet can be collected from the Visitor Information Centres in Torquay, Paignton and Brixham, as well as any of the libraries across the resort from Friday 9th September. The forms can also be downloaded from the website at www.englishriviera.co.uk/agathachristie from the same date. Completed entry forms should be handed into the Visitor Information Centres or libraries in Torquay, Paignton, Churston and Brixham by Monday 19th September.

*Day trip for two aboard either the British Pullman or Northern Belle Orient Express trains courtesy of Orient Express www.orient-express.com. Subject to availability. No cash alternative. Must be taken within one year.

ALL WEEK

Babbacombe Model Village's Agatha Christie Mystery Hunt

Babbacombe Model Village will be concealing various miniature 'Murder Mystery' scenes throughout its gardens during the whole festival week. The challenge is to identify the scenes and see if you can deduce which Agatha Christie novel each scene comes from. Some will be easy; some may be a challenge for even the more ardent Agatha Christie fans. How will you rate among the super sleuths?

Hampton Av, Torquay, TQ1 3LA 01803 328669 Open 10am to 5.30pm
(Last admission 4pm) Admission for Model Village applies.

Agatha Christie's VERDICT

(Every day except Sundays)

Bill Kenwright, by special arrangement with the Agatha Christie Theatre Company, presents Agatha Christie's VERDICT, the most riveting and compelling drama from the undisputed 'Queen of Crime.'

Having been forced to flee persecution in his home country, the brilliant and idealistic Professor Karl Hendryk leads a content and morally upstanding life, caring for his invalid wife Anya and hiding his romantic feelings towards her sister Lisa. His life is turned upside-down however when the prospect of life-saving treatment for Anya persuades him to take on a new pupil against his better judgement; the spoilt, conniving minx Helen who will stop at nothing to get her way. With murderous intentions afoot, it only remains to be seen what verdict will be delivered, and if justice will prevail...

Thirteen at Dinner – with Jonathan Cecil

The Apollo Cinema will be hosting a one-off screening of the classic Agatha Christie film 'Thirteen at Dinner', starring Peter Ustinov as Hercule Poirot, Bill Nighy and Faye Dunaway. Christie fans will also be fascinated to see a young David Suchet playing Inspector Japp. Acclaimed actor Jonathan Cecil will join us to give a short talk before the screening. Jonathan played the role of Hastings in this film, as well as two others with Peter Ustinov and will be happy to answer questions about what it was like taking on such a definitive role. Tickets are free, but are strictly limited to four per person as we expect this event to sell out quickly.

The Apollo Cinema, Paignton Seafront, 2.00pm – 5.30pm
Tickets free, and available from the Apollo Cinema
